

Welcome

BDC 2023
Annual Public Meeting

Isabelle
Hudon

President and Chief Executive Officer

Mike
Pedersen

Chairperson of the Board

BDC is here for Canadian entrepreneurs

→ Financing

→ Advisory Services

→ Capital

Entrepreneurs faced a difficult year

1. High inflation
2. A tight labour market
3. Supply chain issues
4. Highest interest rate hike in 40 years

Working with partners and the Government of Canada

A record year in terms of impact

BDC supports 100,000
entrepreneurs
80% increase since 2018

$12.1 billion
financing &
investments $302.5 million – net income

A focus on...

Sustainability framework

Digital transformation

Legislative review

DEI

A promising future

→ Increased impact for Canada's business owners & the economy

→ A highly engaged & talented workforce

BDC will do even more for Canada's business owners
and the economy

Isabelle

Hudon

President and Chief Executive Officer, BDC

$12.1B
authorized

100,000
clients → served

16,500 through private sector partners

Lisa Learning
CEO and founder AtlanTick Repellent Products

Expert advice through our Advisory Services

→ 2,500 advisory mandates

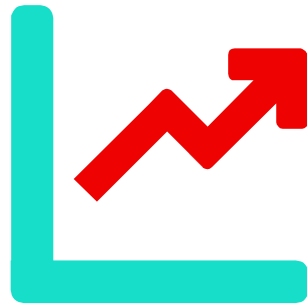

A renewed strategy

Reach more entrepreneurs
and have more impact on their success

Key area

#1

Spur the growth of entrepreneurs and the competitiveness of Canada's economy

BDC Capital: Canada's most active venture capital investor

$5.7B

in investments committed to clients

Key area #2

Increase the reach and relevance
of our support to entrepreneurs

We doubled our efforts to be more present in underserved markets

$1.6B

in loans to women-owned/led companies

$30M

financing envelope for the creative and cultural industries

$500M

for the Thrive Venture Fund
and Lab

Key area #3

Empower entrepreneurs
to respond to the big challenges of our time

Doubling down on our commitment to fight climate change

→ $400-million Climate Tech Fund II

→ ESG reporting template

→ Sustainability Report

Key area #4

Deliver a world-class employee and client experience

Working to improve our client experience

→ Enhanced online financing process

→ Invested in cutting-edge IT systems

BDC's role:
more critical than ever

Helping businesses
grow strategically,
invest in productivity
and remain competitive

Laying the foundation for a more sustainable and inclusive economic future for Canada,
one business at a time

Questions?

info@bdc.ca

BDC

BDC_ca

BDC

BDC_ca

